

See how far we'll go.

StayWell
INSURANCE

Food Handler Certification

The Food Handler Certification Benefit is an endorsement to your StayWell Health Plan.

The Company will pay for the following:

- Examinations for food handlers required for obtaining employment or government licensing when provided by the specifically designated Participating Provider for said Service.
- The Plan covers 80% of Eligible charges for covered expenses incurred by each Enrollee for said Service from specifically designated Participating Providers.
- Specifically designated Participating Providers for said Service are Marianas Medical Center, Saipan Health Clinic, and Pacific Medical Center.
- Examinations provided by other than the specifically designated Participating Providers are not covered.